The Bulfinch Companies, Inc. has closed on a lease for 80,000 square-feet with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) Lincoln Laboratory at Three Forbes Road in Lexington, Mass.

Three Forbes Road is a 160,000-square-foot office, research and development, and lab building that is part of a four-building campus known as Forbes Business Center.

Three Forbes Road is located in the Route 128 technology corridor at the intersection of Routes 95, 128 and 2A. The building is situated in a wooded, campus setting, and features amenities such as a full-service cafeteria and a fitness facility with showers and lockers. Area amenities include the Aloft and Element Lexington hotels, the Minuteman Park recreation area, and Hanscom Field Airport.

MIT Lincoln Laboratory is a federally funded research and development center chartered to apply advanced technology to problems of national security. Research and development activities focus on long-term technology development as well as rapid system prototyping and demonstration.
